INDEX TO VOL. LV

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACT

ACTON'S (Lord) Letters, 765–775
Actors, How they train, in Paris, 966–973
Æschylus and Shakespeare, 585–594
Agricultural depression, town pauperism, and fiscal reform, 255–266
Agricultural distress in Russia, 375–386
Agricultural production and preferential tariffs, 1–11
Alien Restriction Acts of Australia, 146–154
America and England, friendly relations between, 529–537
Anderson (Sir Robert), The Home Office Scheme for 'Professional Criminals,' 117–130; criticised by an ex-prisoner, 278–287; a rejoinder, 811–821
Anglo-French agreement, The, 876–878
Anglo-French rapprochement, 926–936
Anti-Clericalism in France and England, 724–733
Apologetics, Religious, 318–322
Army reform, 173–182, 492–502, 517, 521
Army Remounts, English Horse-breeding and, 974–986
Army, The, and the Esher Scheme, 840–847
Art schools of the Royal Academy, 302–309
Art, Whistler's influence on, as an exponent of modern life, 665–675
Arthur (Sir George), Anti-Clericalism in France and England, 724–733
Assisi, St. Francis of, and Italian art, 421–428
Australasia, The Church in, 795–810
Australia, A White: What it means, 146–154
Australia, Primary Education in, 219–228

BAGOT (Richard), The Pope and Church Music: a Roman Catholic Protest, 881–888

CHI

Barclay (W. S.), Life in Tierra del Fuego, 97–106
Beaumont (Mrs.), Sir George Colley in South Africa: Mr. Morley's Chapter on Majuba, 402–420
Bird Life at Bingham's Melcombe, 776–794
Black Peril in South Africa, The, 712–723
Blennerhassett (Sir Rowland), The Germans at Waterloo and Anglo-German Relations, 183–197; University Education in Ireland, 607–617; England and France, 926–936
Bluejacket, The, and the Tailors, 1030–1034
Brabant (Brigadier-General Sir Edward), A Colonial Comment on the Report of the War Commission, 198–206
Britain's Appeal to the Gods, 538–542
British interests in China as affected by the Russo-Japanese war, 368–374
British Shipping, Free Trade and, 323–335
Broadbent (Sir William), Dr. Maclagan and his Great Work, 734–740

CARNEGIE (Andrew), Britain's Appeal to the Gods, 538–542
Cassells (Walter R.), his article on religious apologetics criticised, 318–322
Chamberlain (Mr.) and Tariff Reform, 161–162, 167–171, 336–351, 509–513, 1036–1041, 1051–1054
China, Japan, Russia, and England, 368–374
China, Russia, and Japan; and the 'Yellow Peril,' 30–39
Chinese conservatism and Japanese progressiveness, 910–925
Chinese Dreamland, In, 576–584
Chinese immigrants in Australia, 146–154
Chinese jade stone, its uses and legends, 138–145
Chinese labour for South Africa, 719

CHR

Christianity, its credentials and its inherent power, 818–822
Church in the Colonies, The, 795–810
Church Music, The Pope and: a Roman Catholic Protest, 881–888
Clarke (Sir George Sydenham), An Imperial Maritime Council, 705–711
Clergy in the Colonies, 807–810
Cobden Centenary, The, and Modern Liberalism, 898–909
Colley (Sir George) in South Africa: Mr. Morley's Chapter on Majuba, 402–420
Colonial agriculture and the proposed preferential tariffs, 1–11
Colonial Preference, The Larger Basis of, 12–29
Colonies, The, and the Mother Country, relations between, 853–867
Colonies, The Church in the, 795–810
Colonisation of Africa by white men, 937–946
Commercial prosperity of Britain, 538–542
— of Japan, 543–554
Confucianism and its influence on Chinese politics, 910–925
Continental Complications, Coming, 555–563
Corsets, The Curse of, 131–137
Crackanthorpe (Montague), Behind the Fiscal Veil, 255–266
Cromer (Earl of), Lord Wolseley's Autobiography, 173–182

DECLARATIONS of war preceded by hostilities, 676–684
Dicey (Edward), Last Month, 165–172, 346–352, 520–528, 695–704, 873–880, 1045–1054
Disestablishment, Lessons from the Antipodes concerning, 802–806
Dockyards, harbours, and naval defence, 603–605
Drama of Æschylus and of Shakespeare, 585–594
Drama, The Recognition of the, by the State, 449–466
Dramatic art, need of a State-aided school for, 966–973
Drew (Mrs.), her Letters of Lord Acton reviewed, 765–775
Duff (Sir Mountstuart Elphinstone Grant), Lord Acton's Letters, 765–775
Duthie (Rev. D. Wallace), Sermons and Samuel Pepys, 288–301

EARLS, The Flight of the, 479–491
Eaton (Fred. A.), The Schools of the Royal Academy of Arts, 302–309

FRE

Economic consolidation of the British Empire as a remedy for foreign trade competition, 12–29
Education Act, The, How Long will it Last? 47–59
Education and religious controversy in France and in England, 724–733
Education in Australasia, 799–802
Education, Primary, in Australia, 219–228
Educational Concordats, 40–46
Educational Concordat, The Proposed: a Nonconformist Reply, 387–401
Electricity, The New Discoveries in, 79–89
Eltzbacher (O.), Russia's Financial Position, 375–386; Japan's Financial Position, 543–554; The Yellow Peril, 910–925
Empire, The Unity of the, 853–867
England and France, 926–936
English Horse-breeding and Army Remounts, 974–986
Esher committee for Army reform, The, 492–502
Esher Scheme, The Army and the, 840–847
Etheria and her 'Itinerary' in Palestine in the fourth century, 651–664
'Ethiopian Church' of South Africa, The, 715–718

FARRER (Reginald J.), The Geisha: a Faithful Study, 630–636
Ferguson (Lady Helen Munro), The State Registration of Nurses, 310–317
Fire fatalities in theatres, 65–67
Fiscal question, The, as affecting India, 444–448
— Mr. Black's resolution, 1038–1040, 1053–1054
Fiscal theories and Britain's commercial prosperity, 538–542
Fiscal Veil, Behind the, 255–266
Fish-destroying Birds and Seals, The Increase of, 107–116
Foster (Sir Michael), The State and Scientific Research, 741–751
France and England, Anti-clericalism in, 724–733
France and England, cordial relations between, 876–878, 926–936
France, Germany, and the Russo-Japanese War, 555–563
Franciscan Legends, The, in Italian Art, 421–428
Free Trade and British Shipping, 323–335
Free trade policy of Cobden, The, 898–909
Free-trade scramble, The, and the principle of nationality, 12–29

GEI

GEISHA, The: a Faithful Study, 630–636
General Nursing Council, necessity for a, 987–995
German Empire-builders as painted by Lenbach, 947–965
German universities and university education in Ireland, 613–616
Germans (The) at Waterloo and Anglo-German Relations, 183–197
Giffen (Sir Robert), Ineffectual Preferences, 1–11
Gilbey (Sir Walter), English Horse-breeding and Army Remounts, 974–986
Giles (Herbert A.), Jade, 138–145; In Chinese Dreamland, 576–584
Gladstone (Mr.) at Hawarden, 637–650
Goldmann (Charles Sydney), South Africa and her Labour Problem, 848–862
Grail, The Holy, and the story of St. Illtyd, 90–96
Great Britain, The United States and, 529–537
Greeks, The Religion of the, 243–254
Gregorian music in Roman Catholic worship, 881–888
Guazzo's Civile Conversation and its influence on Shakespeare, 267–277

HABITUAL criminals and the Penal Servitude Bill, 117–130
Harvey (George), The United States and Great Britain, 529–537
Hawarden, A Visit to, 637–650
Highlands, Suggested National Park in the, 822–826
Hoffmeyr's (Mr.) proposed Imperial Naval Defence fund, 705–711
Holy Week at Jerusalem in the Fourth Century, 651–664
Horse-breeding, English, and Army Remounts, 974–986
House of Commons, The: New Rules and Old Circumstances, 564–575
Hughes (Rev. John), The Proposed Educational Concordat: a Non-conformist Reply, 387–401
Hurd (Archibald S.), Volunteers for the Fleet, 1020–1029

ILLTYD (St.), Cadoc the hermit, and the Holy Grail, 90–96
Imperial affairs and Colonial troops, 198–200
Imperial defence and Army reform, 517–521, 840–847
Imperial Maritime Council, An, 705–711
India and Tariff Reform, 444–448
Ineffectual Preferences, 1–11

LAS

International Law and the duties of neutrals, 503–508
Ireland before the Plantation of Ulster, 479–491
Ireland, Over-representation of, in Parliament, 889–897
Ireland, University Education in, 607–617
Italian Art, Franciscan Legends in, 421–428

JACKDAWS at Melcombe, 782–785
Jade, 138–145
James III., The Youth of, 1005–1019
Japan, Port Arthur, and the Powers, 618–629
Japan, Russia, and Ourselves, 368–374
Japan, Russia's Charge against, 676–684
Japan's Financial Position, 543–554
Japanese Relations with Korea, 207–218
Japanese and Russian War, 163–166, 351, 514–517, 527–528, 871–872, 1044–1048
Japanese wives and geishas, 630–636
Jerusalem, Holy Week at, in the Fourth Century, 651–664
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), The White Man's Place in Africa, 937–946
Jones (Henry Arthur), The Recognition of the Drama by the State, 449–466
Jones (Roderick), The Black Peril in South Africa, 712–723

KAFFIRS and whites and political parties in South Africa, 712–723
Kenealy (Dr. Arabella), The Curse of Corsets, 131–137
Kidd (Benjamin), The Larger Basis of Colonial Preference, 12–29
Kimber (Henry), The Mis-representation of the People in Parliament, 889–897
Kimberley, The defence of, 200–203
Kingfishers, 785–788
Kingsley Novels, The, 996–1004
Knight of the Sangreal, A, 90–96
Korea, Japanese Relations with, 207–218
Kropotkin (Princess), Lending Libraries and Cheap Books, 69–68

LABOUR Problem, South Africa and her, 848–862
Laffan (Rev. R. S. De Courcy), Æschylus and Shakespeare, 585–594
Larger Basis of Colonial Preference, The, 12–29
Last Month, 155–172, 346–352, 509–528, 695–704, 863–880, 1035–1054

LAT

Lathbury (D. C.), How Long will the Education Act Last? 47–59; reply to, 387–401
Law (Oswald P.) and W. T. Gill, A White Australia: What it means, 146–154
Ledger (Rev. Edmund), The Nebulæ, 229–242
Lenbach, Franz von, Historian-Portraitist of the German Empire, 947–965
Lending Libraries and Cheap Books, 69–78
Li Hung Chang and Port Arthur, 618–629
Liberal Unionism, 170–171, 346–349, 1038, 1052–1053
Liberalism, Modern, The Cobden Centenary and, 898–909
Licensing Bill, The, 1041–1042
London Theatres Past and Present, Some Notes as to, 60–68
Londonderry (Marchioness of), The State Registration of Nurses, 987–990
Longford (Joseph H.), Japanese Relations with Korea, 207–218; The History of Port Arthur, 618–629
Lord (Walter Frewen), What is a University? 467–478; The Kingsley Novels, 996–1004
Low (Sidney), The War Office Revolution and its Limits, 492–502
Lückes (Eva C. E.), 'The State Registration of Nurses,' 827–839
Lucy (Henry W.), The House of Commons: New Rules and Old Circumstances, 564–575

McCLURE (Mrs.), Holy Week at Jerusalem in the Fourth Century, 651–664
Macdonell (Sir John), Some Duties of Neutrals, 503–508
Maclagan (Dr.) and his Great Work, 734–740
MacMahon (Anita), Franz von Lenbach: Historian-Portraitist of the German Empire, 947–965
Majuba and Sir George Colley, Mr. Morley's chapter on, 402–420
Manchester school of politics, Cobden and the, 898–909
Maritime Council, An Imperial, 705–711
Marston (R. B.), The Increase of Fish-destroying Birds and Seals, 107–116
Maurice (Major-Gen. Sir Frederick), Russia's Charge against Japan, 676–684
Melcombe, Bingham's, Bird Life at, 776–794

PAS

Merchant cruisers and Government subsidies, 602–603
Mining industry, The, in South Africa, and native labour, 848–862
Mishongnovi, The Snake-dancers of, 429–443
Mis-representation of the People, The, in Parliament, 889–897
Missions to prisoners, 820–821
Montgomery (H. J. B.), An Ex-Prisoner on Professional Criminals, 278–287
Morley (John), his chapter on Majuba in his Life of Gladstone, 402–420
Mythology and religion of the ancient Greeks, 243–254

NAPOLEON, Wellington, and the Prussians at Waterloo, 183–197
National Park, A, for Scotland, 822–826
National theatre, An English, 449–466
Native labour in South African mines, 848–862
Naval Council for the Empire, Proposed, 705–711
Naval Expenditure and Naval Strength, 595–606
Naval uniforms and sailors' grievances, 1030–1034
Naval Volunteers, 1020–1029
Nebulæ, The, 229–242
Neutrals, Some Duties of, 503–508
Nonconformists and the Education controversy, 387–401
Nurses, The State Registration of, 310–317, 827–839, 987–995

ONA tribe, The, in Tierra del Fuego, 97–106
Opera, Against a Subsidised, 752–764
Oxford and Cambridge, and the ideal university, 467–478

PALESTINE in the fourth century as described by a lady, 651–664
Panama, Colombia, and the United States, 165
Papacy, Lord Acton's opinion concerning the, 772–773
Parliament and politics, 155–163, 167–171, 336–345, 346–351, 509–518, 863–871, 873–880, 1035–1054
Parliamentary Procedure, New Rules of, 564–575
Paris, How they train Actors in, 966–973
Parliament, The Mis-representation of the People in, 889–897
Passive Resistance and the Education question, 162–163

PAT

Pathological research, State aid versus State support for, 741–751
Paul (Herbert), The Religion of the Greeks, 243–254
Penal Servitude Bill, The, and habitual criminals, 117–130
Pepys (Samuel), Sermons and, 288–301
Play-acting and theatres from Elizabethan times to the present day, 60–68
Pollock (Lieut.-Col. Alsager), The Army and the Esher Scheme, 840–847
Pope, The, and Church Music: a Roman Catholic Protest, 881–888
Porpoises and seals and the injury they inflict on fisheries, 107–116
Port Arthur, The History of, 618–629
Portrait-painting of Lenbach, 947–965
Pownall (C. A. W.), Russia, Japan, and Ourselves, 368–374
Preachers in Pepys's time and sermons of the future, 288–301
Preferences, Ineffectual, 1–11
Preferential tariffs and Imperial unity, 353–367
'Pretender,' The Stuart, James III., story of his early life, 1005–1019
Professional Criminals, An Ex-Prisoner on, 278–287
'Professional Criminals,' The Home Office Scheme for, 117–130
Proportional parliamentary representation on the basis of population, 889–897
Psychology of dreams in Chinese literature, 576–584

QUEENSLAND, North (Bishop of), Primary Education in Australia, 219–228

RADIO-activity and the connection between electricity and light, 79–89
Red Indian snake-dancers, 429–443
Reid (Sir Wemyss), Last Month, 155–164, 336–352, 509–519, 685–694, 863–872, 1035–1044
Religion and education in France and in England, 733
Religion of the Greeks, The, 243–254
Religious Apologetics, 318–322
Religious education in Australia, 219–223
— — in elementary schools, 40–59
Renwick (W. H.), Free Trade and British Shipping, 323–335
Rheumatism, Dr. Maclagan's treatment of, 734–740
Rhys (Ernest), A Knight of the Sangreal, 90–96

SNA

Ribblesdale (Lady), A Visit to Hawarden, 637–650
Robertson (Edmund), Naval Expenditure and Naval Strength, 595–606
Rooks at Bingham's Melcombe, 776–782
Royal Academy of Arts, The Schools of the, 302–309
Russia, Japan, and Korea, 207–218
Russia, Japan, and Ourselves, 368–374
Russia's Charge against Japan, 676–684
Russia's Financial Position, 375–386
Russian literature, its publishers and its readers, 69–78
Russo-Japanese War, 163–166, 351, 514–517, 527–528, 871–872, 1044–1048
— and the financial stability of Japan, 543–554
— history of Port Arthur, 618–629
— possibility of French or German intervention, 555–563

ST. ASAPH (The Bishop of), Educational Concordats, 40–46; reply to, 387–401
Salicin cure for rheumatism, The, 734–740
Salmon and trout, Destruction of, by birds and seals, 107–116
Salter (Emma Gurney), The Franciscan Legends in Italian Art, 421–428
Samuel (Herbert), The Cobden Centenary and Modern Liberalism, 898–909
Sangreal, A Knight of the, 90–96
Scholastic guilds and universities, 607–617
Scientific Research, The State and, 741–751
Scotland, A National Park for, 822–826
Scott (Hugh Arthur), Against a Subsidised Opera, 752–764
Scott (Mrs. Maxwell), The Youth of James III., 1005–1019
Sea-power and Naval expenditure, 595–606
Sermons and Samuel Pepys, 288–301
Shakespeare, Æschylus and, 585–594
Shakespeare's Library, A Forgotten Volume in, 267–277
Shipping subsidies and British trade, 323–345
Smith (Rev. Dr. Gregory), Religious Apologetics, 318–322
Smith (R. Bosworth), Bird Life at Bingham's Melcombe, 776–794
Snake-dancers, The, of Mishongnovi, 429–443

SOL

Soldier's Life, The Story of a, by Lord Wolseley, 173–182
Soudan campaign and civilian control, 175–177
South Africa, The Black Peril in, 712–723
South Africa and her Labour Problem, 848–862
South African War, Lessons from the, 198–206
Spectroscopic observations of nebulæ and stars, 229–242
Spencer (Herbert), 164, 171–172
Star-clusters and nebulæ, 229–242
State Registration of Nurses, The, 310–317, 827–839, 987–995
State-supported opera-house, Objections to a, 752–764
State, The, and Scientific Research, 741–751
Stewart (Charles), A National Park for Scotland, 822–826
Stewart (Miss Isla), The State Registration of Nurses, 991–995
Stuart, James Edward, James III., called also the Pretender, his early life, 1005–1019
Submarines, 600–602
Subsidised Opera, Against a, 752–764
Sullivan (Sir Edward), A Forgotten Volume in Shakespeare's Library, 267–277

TAILORS, The Bluejacket and the, 1030–1034
Tariff Reform, India and, 444–448
Thring (Lord), The Unity of the Empire, 353–367
Tibet and the Younghusband mission, 1042–1043, 1049–1050
Tierra del Fuego, Life in, 97–106
Tight-lacing and physical deterioration, 131–137
Townshend (R. B.), The Snake-dancers of Mishongnovi, 429–443
Training of nurses and State registration, 310–317, 827–839, 987–995
Transvaal labour question, 166, 848–862
Trinity College, Dublin, and the Queen's Colleges of Ireland, 611–617
Tyrone and Tyrconnell, The Earls of, their alleged conspiracy, 479–491

UNITED States, The, and Great Britain, 529–537

ZIM

University Education, in Ireland 607–617
University, What is a? 467–478

VICTORIAN novelists, The place of the brothers Kingsley among the, 996–1004
Volunteers for the Fleet, 1020–1029
Voluntary schools and religious education, 40–59

WADDINGTON (M.), a visit to Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden, 637–650
War Commission, A Colonial Comment on the Report of the, 198–206
War Office Revolution, The, and its Limits, 492–502
Waterloo, The Germans at, and Anglo-French Relations, 183–197
Wedmore (Frederick), The Place of Whistler, 665–675
Welldon (Bishop), The Church in the Colonies, 795–810
Wellington, The Duke of, and the Prussians at Waterloo, 183–197
— his desire for cordial relations between England and France, 927–929
West (Sir Algernon), Some Notes as to London Theatres Past and Present, 60–68
Whistler, The Place of, 665–675
White Australia, A: What it means, 146–154
White Man's Place in Africa, The, 937–946
Whiteing (Richard), How they train Actors in Paris, 966–973
Wild Birds' Protection Act, need for revision of, 107–116
Wild nature as seen in a National Park, 822–826
Wilson (Philip), The Flight of the Earls, 479–491
Wolseley's (Lord) Autobiography, 173–182
Woodpeckers and other climbers, 788–791

'YELLOW Peril' Bogey, The, 30–39
Yellow Peril, The, 910–925
Yexley (Lionel), The Bluejacket and the Tailors, 1030–1034

ZIMMERN (Antonia), The New Discoveries in Electricity, 79–89

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., NEW-STREET SQUARE
LONDON